CORRESPONDENCE.

Brown City Letter.

Some of our boys are leaving for the woods.

Dr. Vail, of Yale, will visit Brown City every Friday.

Alex. Dunn has gone to work at the tunnel in Port Huron.

The M. E. Sunday school will have a Christmas luller on Christmas eve at their church.

Mrs. Allen, the lady evangelist, gave an interesting lecture in Delong's hall, last Friday evening.

Marlette Letter.

W. P. Baird will soon move to Attica. John Crothers will conduct his milk business.

A Christmas Washing will be held at the M. E. church this year instead of the usual tree.

A lodge of the Modern Woodmen of America has been organized here with thirteen charter members.

Below is a list of officers elected by Marlette lodge, No. 343, F. & A. M.: Geo. Little, W. M.; D. W. Leonard, S. W.; C. L. Messer, J. W.; T. U. Dawson, Treasurer; J. W. Warner, Secretary; E. W. Ellsworth, S. D.; George Huston, J. D.; George Erwin, Tyler. Regular communication December 28th at High Twelve for the installation of officers.

Roseburg Letter.

Geo. W. Bradshaw went to Yale on Saturday.

John Mathews, of Yale, was in Roseburg last Saturday.

A. Mills, of Port Huron, was in the burg Saturday evening last.

Wm. McIntyre was in Roseburg on a business errand Thursday last.

The noted functionary and monstrosity, the township school inspector, paid our school an official visit one day last week. The teacher and the pupils were somewhat surprised, when at the close of about ten minutes they received a severe reprimand on account of some disorder for which he, the inspector, was wholly responsible. It is recommended that in future he enter school houses with a little less pomposity and a little more sunder. It is hoped he will not disturb the peace and quiet of the school again. Ladies and gentlemen are always welcome; big-headed cranks never.

Yale Letter.

The church bell arrived on Saturday last.

Robert Hughson pressed hay for H. J. McPhee this week.

Mary Scott, of Brown City, spent Sunday at Daniel Weaver's.

Our choir has swelled its ranks yet still there is room for more.

Robert Kettlewell and Emma Billing were married on Wednesday.

Edward Laidlaw went to Campfield, Ont., on a visit to friends Wednesday.

One of the Melvin pugilists attended the wedding dance at Norman McLeod's Tuesday evening.

Mary Redhouse, of Big Rapids, arrived in town Saturday to visit her parents during the holidays.

George Gilbert was driving a nail when he glanced and flew hitting him in the eye. He will lose the use of it.

The funeral of Mrs. Preston Coats was held in the church on Sunday and her remains were interred in Yale cemetery.

Emmett Letter.

The Y. P. S. A. Concert Friday night was a success.

M. Kelly is opening a new grocery store in Sheehan's place.

McCabe has returned to town. He is collecting for the Champion Company.

The Macabees are growing very rapidly and a tent of 100 is confidently expected by spring.

Mrs. Gorringer, 1 mile south of this village, who has been very ill for some weeks, is recovering.

Fred Howe fireman on a through freight was badly scalded here Saturday night. He accidentally opened a steam pipe and the steam rushed into his eyes. He was taken to the hotel and cared for by the R. R. Surgeon, Dr. Abbott, till Monday when he went to Battle Creek.

Some salivagers broke the danger signal bell at the R. R. crossing Sunday night. They also pelted a gentleman and a lady with stones and threw at houses and other things. Not likely they in ended more than a little fun but they should be taught to keep with in bounds and if they are discovered no doubt they will be punished.

Lynn Letter.

Deacon Dohrman, of Detroit, landed in town Tuesday night and will remain at home all winter.

Lester Spencer, of Jackson, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Arthur Smith, and will remain several days.

T. H. Weaver, of Detroit, one of our former prominent young men, arrived home Monday evening. He intends to stay a few weeks visiting his parents and friends.

George Richardson, one of the oldest settlers in the township, died at his residence Sunday morning at 8 o'clock. Funeral services were held at the M. P. church, conducted by Rev. J. Beatty. A large number of relatives and friends were present, the house being filled to its utmost capacity. The deceased was about sixty years old, a member of the Free Will Baptist church, and a model farmer. The mourning friends have the sympathy of the whole community.

The following list of officers were elected on Dec. 18, 1891, to serve for the ensuing year in May tent, No. 477, K. O. T. M.: Commander, Elston Huffman; Lt. Com., Geo. Mandeville; R. K., J. C. P. A Scottish society has been organized at Sanilac Centre with about twenty members. Burns' birthday will be celebrated Jan. 25th at the same place.

Mrs. Wm. Rider, of Imlay City, was so severely burned last week by a lamp which she carried, dropping, breaking and igniting her clothes, that she died a few days after.

A terrible accident occurred at Mayville recently. While a crew of men were threshing, the crown head of the boiler was blown out, instantly killing Richard Turland and hurt Barnaby and injuring several others. The flames set fire to the barns burning them with the contents and one horse. Loss about $1,200 on barns.

Very Much Surprised.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 15 cents per bottle.

A Contractor's Advice.

Messrs. Dullam Bros.: Gentlemen—I take great pleasure in testifying in behalf of Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure. I can safely say that I never took such a medicine as that to cleanse the liver, stomach and kidneys. I was suffering for years with biliousness, indigestion, and loss of appetite and sleep. One bottle did for me more good than six months other treatment, and I feel my duty to testify in its behalf so others may try it and get cured. Yours, WARREN E. RUSSELL.

A Happy Event.

A most enjoyable affair took place at the residence of W. A. Billings, of Speaker, Dec. 23, 1891, and being the twentieth anniversary of their marriage, it was celebrated by the wedding of their eldest daughter, Emma, to Robert Kettlewell, Rev. Wm. Ellertorp, of Worth, officiating. A goodly number of their numerous friends were present despite the muddy roads. The presents were both costly and useful, of which the following is a list: W. A. Billings, father of the bride, an organ; Mrs. Billings, bedroom set and pair blankets; Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher, grandparents of bride, silver pickle dish and table linen; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kettlewell, table linen and napkins; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kettlewell, large parlor lamp; Mr. and Mrs. John Tenneswood, table linen; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weston, large fruit dish and pair towels; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reddell, bed spread; Mr. and Mrs. George Tenneswood, silver pickle canister; Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Shell, set teaspoon and butter knife; George Fletcher and wife, table linen and wash; Wm. Fletcher and wife, pair towels; Robt. Fletcher and wife, photo album; Nellie Nason, large fruit dish; Neil McKelth, silver napkin ring; Frank, Mae, and Ella Tenneswood, toilet cushions; Mary A. Tenneswood, pair china vases; Ella Simmons, pair vases; Lola Gilbert, fruit dish; Arthur Tenneswood, glass water set and tray; Nellie Weston, china dish; Ella Tenneswood, plush toilet case; Webb Fletcher, table spread; Nellie Billings, rolling pin and bottle perfume; Eunice Billings, watch holder; Maggie Billings, butter dish and lantern; Mandie Billing, two pie dishes; Freddie Billings, sack popcorn. After partaking of a bountiful repast the happy couple started for the train mid showers of rice.
